

ILEANA BURDINE Fact Sheet

Artist name: Ileana Burdine

Musical style: Folk-flavored Pop / Adult Contemporary, in the style of Jewel , Michelle Branch

Hometown: Albuquerque, New Mexico

Current CD: "Super Ordinary Girl"

Other CD Releases: "Counting Stars As They Fall", "Miles To Go", "Playing Solo"

Record Label: Reality Chick Records

Website: www.superordinarygirl.com

Instruments on Super Ordinary Girl:

Ileana- vocals and acoustic guitar

Michael King- stand up bass

Peter Torsiello- all other instruments

Instruments for live performances:

Ileana- vocals and acoustic guitar

Tim Rood- bass

Cheryl Bullock- drums and percussion

Peter Torsiello- guitar and back up vocals

Points of note:

- Honorable Mention in Billboard Song Contest 2005 for "What R U So Afraid Of", "Waiting So Long" and "Hold Me"
- Voted 'Best Musical Production-Adult Contemporary' for the song "Barely" by the New Mexico Music Industry Awards
- Voted 'Best Female Vocalist', 'Best Songwriter' and 'Musician of the Year' by the Weekly Alibi
- Honorable Mention in Billboard Song Contest 2002 for the song "I Would"
- Finalist for 'Best Song' for the song "I Would" by the New Mexico Music Industry Awards
- "Super Ordinary Girl" is Ileana's third full length release. ILEANA teams up with producer Peter Torsiello, whose credits include Third Watch and That 70's Show, to record brilliant performances which showcase her vocal strength and subtleties while staying true to her powerful storytelling. "Super Ordinary Girl" was mastered at the Grammy Winning Santa Fe Centers Studio by Eric Larson.

Contact:

Ileana
(310) 699-3514
info@realitychickrecords.com

Legal contact:

Erica Jones Miller
(310) 445-4010